BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

5787: 2026-2027

YIZKOR MEMORIAL PRAYERS

We recite the Yizkor prayers at a special point in the service. It is a time when we recall those who were very dear to us.

We are preparing for our own mortality. We leave this world eventually and take nothing with us. The way we lead our lives leaves a lasting impression on our family and friends.

Our deeds of charity, justice, honesty and friendship honor our departed loved ones and make a positive difference in the generations to come.

During the Jewish calendar year 5787 Yizkor Memorial Prayers will be offered:

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and its going down,
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR THE DEPARTED

Congregation B'nai Israel lovingly recalls members who passed away during 5786.

We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this Congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall:

Dolores Diamond
Marilyn Goldberg
Marvin Leibson
Ana Masri
Jesse Rodman

May their memories endure as a blessing.

MAY THEIR MEMORIES BE A BLESSING

Our tradition teaches us to honor the memories of our departed loved ones during the Yizkor services on the holiest day of the year, Yom Kippur, as well as Shemini Atzeret, Pesach and Shavuot.

At Congregation B'nai Israel, we embrace this tradition. Each year, our congregants submit the names of their loved ones for inclusion in our annual Book of Remembrance and honor their memories with charitable donations.

Free-will contributions were made in accordance with the hallowed Jewish tradition.

Donors are listed alphabetically.

A SPECIAL PRAYER FOR THOSE NOT SAYING YIZKOR FOR PARENTS

The following prayer may be recited by worshippers who are blessed by having their parents still living while others are reciting Yizkor:

ALMIGHTY GOD, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I at this solemn moment raise my eyes unto You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart thank You for Your mercies in having preserved the life of my beloved father and mother.

MAY it be Your will, Adonai my God and God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

IN return for all their affection and the sacrifices, which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe unto them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

SHIELD my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart, my Creator in Heaven.

Amen

DEATH IS NOT THE ENEMY

I often feel that death is not the enemy of life, but its friend; for it is the knowledge that our years are limited, which makes them so precious. It is the truth that time is but lent to us which makes us, at our best, look upon our years as a trust handed into our temporary keeping.

We are like children privileged to spend a day in a great park, a park filled with many gardens and playgrounds, and azure-tinted lakes and boats sailing upon tranquil waves.

True, the day allotted to each of us is not the same in length, in light, in beauty. Some children of earth are privileged to spend a long and sunlit day in the garden of the earth. For others, the day is shorter, cloudier, and dusk descends more quickly as in a winter's tale.

But whether our life is a long summery day or a shorter wintry afternoon, we know that inevitably there are storms and squalls which overcast even the bluest heaven and there are sunlit rays, which pierce the darkest autumn sky. The day we are privileged to spend in the great park of life is not the same for all human beings; but there is enough beauty and joy and gaiety in the hours, if we but treasure them.

Then for each of us the moment comes when the great nurse, death, takes us by the hand and quietly says, "It is time to go home. Night is coming. It is your bedtime, child of earth. Come, you're tired. Lie down at last in the quiet nursery of nature and sleep. Sleep well. The day is gone. Stars shine in the canopy of eternity."

A MEDITATION

When my loved one is taken from me, shall I mourn?
When my dear one departs forever, shall I wail and rend my flesh as I do my garment?

No! That is not the way. I may find the road ahead lonely. I may dread tomorrow without that voice, without that smile. I may not know whence will come the courage to continue Yet I shall not despair!

I shall praise God who gave me my beloved. I shall sing unto God who enables us to love. I shall voice thanks for what I have had. I will refuse to become bitter over what I shall lack.

When my loved one leaves me, I shall indeed shed tears. Yet, even then, I shall utter a hymn — A song of joy for what has been.

BARUCH ATAH ADONAI! Praised are You, O God!
You have allowed me to know love; You have granted me an eternal treasure.

BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN YOU

Because we believe in You, O God of healing, We pray that You will heal those who grieve,

Softening their pain, binding up their wounds, And wiping the tears from their faces.

Because we believe in You, O God of compassion, We pray that You will show mercy to the sorrowing.

Sending them strength and courage for today, Trust and hope for tomorrow.

Because we believe in You, O God of forgiveness, We pray that You will grant relief from guilt and remorse,

For things done and for things left undone, For words spoken and words left unspoken.

Because we believe in You, O God of love, We pray that You will console the heavy-hearted;

Helping them to sense that even in darkness The light of Your love is still aglow.

Because we believe in You, O God of Eternity, We pray that You will comfort the bereaved

With the faith that their beloved is bound to You, In the bond of everlasting life.

Because we believe in You, O God of goodness, We pray that You will deepen the goodness in each of us,

That we may help, support, and love one another; And thus share in the gift of Your Divine love.

A Minyan of Comfort

THE MEASURE OF A PERSON

Not...“How did they die?” But ...“How did they live?”

Not...“What did they gain?” But...“What did they give?”

These are the units to measure the worth
Of a person as a person, regardless of birth.

Not...“What was their station?” But...“Had they a heart?”
And...“How did they play their God-given part?”

Were they ever ready with a word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not...“What was their faith?”
Nor...“What was their creed?”
But...“Had they befriended those really in need?”

Not...“What did the sketch in the newspaper say?”
But ... How many were sorry when they passed away?”

קדיש יתום

In love we remember those who no longer walk this earth. We are grateful to God for the gift of their lives, for the joys we shared, and for the cherished memories that never fade. May God grant those who mourn the strength to see beyond their sorrow, sustaining them despite their grief. May the faith that binds us to our loved ones be a continuing source of comfort, as we invite those who mourn, and those observing Yahrzeit, to praise God's name with the words of the Kaddish.

Mourners and those observing Yahrzeit:

יִתְגַּדֵּל וְיִתְקַדַּשׁ שְׁמֵהּ רַבָּא, בְּעֶלְמָא דִּי בְרָא, בְּרַעוּתָהּ, וְיִמְלִיךָ מַלְכוּתָהּ בְּחַיִּיכוֹן וּבְיוֹמֵיכוֹן וּבְחַיֵּי דְכָל-בֵּית יִשְׂרָאֵל, בְּעֶגְלָא וּבְזִמְן קָרִיב, וְאָמְרוּ אָמֵן.

Congregation and mourners:

יְהֵא שְׁמֵהּ רַבָּא מְבָרַךְ לְעָלַם וּלְעָלְמֵי עָלְמֵיָא.

Mourners:

יִתְבָּרַךְ וְיִשְׁתַּבַּח וְיִתְפָּאֵר וְיִתְרוֹמֵם וְיִתְנַשֵּׂא וְיִתְהַדָּר
וְיִתְעַלֶּה וְיִתְהַלָּל שְׁמֵהּ דְקֻדְשָׁא, בְּרִיךְ הוּא *לְעָלָא מִן כָּל-בְּרִכְתָּא וְשִׁירְתָּא תְּשַׁבַּחְתָּא וְנִחַמְתָּא דְאֲמִירָן בְּעֶלְמָא, וְאָמְרוּ אָמֵן.

*On שבת שובה: לְעָלָא לְעָלָא מְבָל-בְּרִכְתָּא וְשִׁירְתָּא

יְהֵא שְׁלָמָא רַבָּא מִן שְׁמֵיָא וְחַיִּים עָלֵינוּ וְעַל כָּל-יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְאָמְרוּ אָמֵן.

עֲשֵׂה שְׁלוֹם בְּמִרוֹמָיו, הוּא יַעֲשֶׂה שְׁלוֹם עָלֵינוּ וְעַל כָּל-יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְאָמְרוּ אָמֵן.

MOURNER'S KADDISH

As we recite the Kaddish, we pray that all people throughout the world will recognize God's sovereignty in our time. For only to the extent that God's sovereignty is felt in the world, can blessing and song, peace and harmony, hope and consolation fill our lives. Thus, in recalling our dead, of blessed memory, we confront our loss in the presence of the congregation with an affirmation of faith. Let those who are in mourning or observing Yahrzeit join in praise of God's name.

Mourners and those observing Yahrzeit:

Yitgadal v'yitkadash sh'mei raba, b'alma di v'ra, kir'utei, v'yamlikh malkhutei b'hayeikhon u-v'yomeikhon u-v'haye d'khol beit Yisra-el, ba'agalah u-vi-z'man kariv, v'imru amen.

Congregation and mourners:

Y'hei sh'mei raba m'varakh l'alam u-l'almei almay.

Mourners:

Yitbarakh v'yshtabah v'yitpa-ar v'yitromam v'yitnasei, v'yit-hadar v'yit'aleh v'yit-halal sh'mei d'kudsha, b'rikh hu *l'ela min kol birkhata v'shirata tushb'hata v'nehamata da'amiran b'alma, v'imru amen.

On Shabbat Shuvah: l'ela l'ela mi-kol birkhata v'shirata*

Y'hei sh'lama raba min sh'maya v'hayim aleinu v'al kol Yisra-el, v'imru amen.

Oseh shalom bi-m'romav, hu ya'aseh shalom aleinu v'al kol Yisra-el, v'imru amen.

STARS

There are stars whose radiance is visible on earth though they have long been extinct.

There are people whose brilliance continues to light the world though they are no longer among the living.

These lights are particularly bright when the night is dark.
They light the way for humankind.
